It is asked that the expedition, if sent, be put under international control to guarantee the rights of Russia.

HOSPITAL DIRECTORS HOLD MEETING

Annual Tag Day for Benefit of Local Institution Will Be Held in August.

The regular monthly meeting of the Board of Directors of the Portsmouth Hospital was held at the Nurses' Home on Monday. The usual reports were received and nothing important marked the meeting.

The importance of enlarging the institution was discussed but nothing definite was decided as it is up to the trustees to decide whether the building shall be enlarged or not.

It was decided to hold the annual tag day for the benefit of the hospital some day in August.

Owing to the fact that the reception room in the hospital where the meeting is usually held, is filled with beds at the present time because of the crowded conditions, the directors were obliged to hold the meeting yesterday in the Nurses' home.

NO STATE CONVENTION

Hibernians of This State Vote Not to Meet This Year.

At a meeting of the state officials of the A. O. H. held in Concord on Sunday it was voted not to hold any state convention. They followed the action of the national organization.

Those present included State Vice President Daniel Finn of Laconia, State Secretary Walter J. Mullen of Manchester, Joseph O'Neill of Nashua, state chairman of Irish history, Edward P. Keane of Manchester, president of the Hillsborough county division and Frank O'Brien of Portsmouth, Rockingham county president.

German Drive Continues Between Montdidier and Noyon—French Retake Village of Mery, Hurling Back Enemy Along Front in Counter Attack

BOY BURGLAR BUSY AGAIN

Harmon's Grocery Store Has Second Visit From Juveniles.

For the second time within two months juveniles entered the store of S. P. Harmon at 201 Marcy street in a hunt for money. Both times they got what they were hunting for.

The proprietor on opening today found that the place had been entered by breaking glass in the front window. The break was the same as the previous one and was reported at once to the police who later arrested a ten year old boy who said that he had the job and entered the store at 3 o'clock this morning. He admitted taking money and beat officer Shannon to the rear of the store of Frank Churchill where he had concealed a wooden box containing about $20 in change. The lad said he was alone on the job. The money was resting on a beam over the water and it took the boy some time to get at it. He will be arraigned in the juvenile court and probably sent to the State Industrial School.

BIG CIRCUS TOMORROW.

John L. Fehr, agent of Walter J. Mains' shows, arrived in town this noon and reports tremendous business all along the line. The Mains shows have an A-1 reputation, carrying many big feature circus acts and our people are assured of a first class exhibition.

Paris, June 11.—The German drive between Montdidier and Noyon continued unremittingly last night, says today's official report. On their left the French offered effective resistance. They recaptured the village of Mery.

The principal German effort was directed against the center. Attacking with heavy forces, the enemy drove back the French as far as the Aronny river, but by a brilliant counter attack the French hurled back the enemy all along this front and re-established their line south of Belleu.

At St. Maure, south of Marquellies and Vandellou, on the right, the French engaged in a violent combat with a large force concentrated by the enemy, who was unable to gain ground. The French withdrew their line west of Ribecourt.

London, June 11.—The British last night carried out an operation east of Amiens by which their lines south of Marlescourt were advanced a half a mile on a mile and a half front, the war office announced today. Two hundred and thirty-three prisoners were taken.

Paris, June 11.—The long range bombardment of Paris began again this morning. Two persons were killed and nine wounded as a result of yesterday's raid.

130 NAMES ON CASUALTY LIST TODAY

(By Associated Press)

URGES SUPPORT OF LABOR IN THE WAR

(By Associated Press)

Washington, June 11.—President Wilson today telegraphed to the American Federation of Labor and the American Alliance for Labor and Democracy in convention at St. Paul urging renewed efforts of labor in support of the war program.

"A war can be lost in America as well as on the fields of France, and it considered or unjust interruption of the essential labor of the country may make it impossible to win," said President Wilson's telegram to Robert Maitel of the Alliance.

CALL MEN FOR LIMITED SERVICE

(By Associated Press)

Shrewsbury, Mass., June 11.—Lieut. Torrey H. Webb left here in an army airplane at 10:42 a. m. today for New York with mail, and Postmaster William Murray of Boston, as a passenger.

DON'T THINK U-BOATS HAVE MOTHER SHIP

(By Associated Press)

Washington, June 11.—Reports from the survivors of the steamer Phalar del Rio, which was destroyed by a German submarine off the Virginia coast, that the enemy raiders were accompanied by a mother ship found no confirmation today at the navy department.

However, officials believe that the raiders might have used a captured vessel loaded with supplies to prolong their stay off the coast and the navy department is convinced that no base exists along the Atlantic coast and that the raid is in the nature of a single raid.

AVIATOR IS KILLED IN ACCIDENT

(By Associated Press)

East Greenwich, R. I., June 11.—Jack McGee, of Pawtucket, an aviator who had given many exhibition flights in various parts of the country, was killed in an airplane accident here today. The machine in which he was flying over Narragansett Bay fell into the water after an explosion.

SUBMARINE SUNK BY A STEAMSHIP

U-Boat Disappears After Fired Upon by a British Liner and It Is Believed a Clean Hit Was Made

(By Associated Press)

An Atlantic Port, June 11.—A German submarine was attacked and apparently sunk by a British steamship a week ago, Sunday morning, off a British port, according to passengers on the vessel which arrived here today.

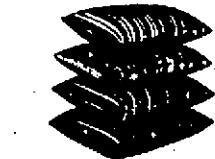

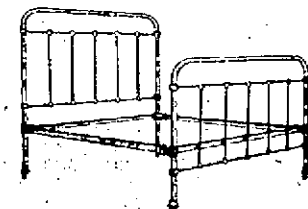

U. S. Army officer who saw the single shot fired at the U-boat, which was only 160 yards away, expressed the opinion that a clean hit was made.

Two destroyers which accompanied the liner, closed in and dropped depth charges on the spot where the submarine had disappeared.

The British steamship was met some distance from this port by a scout airplane, and escorted her here. The liner carried 115 passengers. She is a vessel which several times has been subjected to unsuccessful torpedo attacks and once was shelled by a U-boat.

The Salvation Army in the War.

An interesting feature of the meeting held at the North Church on the occasion of the recent visit of Commander Evangeline Booth of the Salvation Army was the reading of a letter from a young Maine soldier who recently died at the front in France. The letter was written to his mother, and in it he told what the Salvation Army is doing for the men on the battle front.

He said the women are like mothers to the boys. They do not hesitate to go to the trenches with hot coffee and good things to eat. They do not shrink in the face of danger, but persevere unflinchingly in the noble work which they have voluntarily gone abroad to perform in behalf of freedom, civilization and humanity. And that this work is appreciated by the soldiers was made very plain by the young man who has since answered the final roll call.

And that he did not overestimate the importance and value of this work can be readily understood by those familiar with what is being done by the Salvation Army here. This band of Christian workers is familiar with hardship. Its ranks are composed of the poor and lowly who work among the poor and lowly. Their hearts are in their work and they are earnest and unflinching. In storm and sunshine they go forth to proclaim the sweet and simple truths of the gospel, and to reclaim men and women who have traveled the downward path until they have reached the lowest level. But there is none so far down as to be beneath their notice or beyond their desire to uplift and restore.

In the army their work is that of ministering angels. Not only are they ready to cheer and comfort the suffering and the dying, but they are ready to lend the helping hand wherever a helping hand is needed. No wonder the young soldier who wrote the letter referred to spoke of the women members of the Salvation Army as "mothers to the boys."

All know that the army surgeons and the Red Cross nurses are doing all possible in their power for the sick and wounded among the troops, yet there is room for the work the Salvation Army is doing, and doing so well. And for doing this work it will receive the recognition to which it is so justly entitled.

When the Salvation Army first made its appearance in this country its unique methods were rather unfavorably regarded and the organization was subjected to more or less ridicule. But as time went on its work in the big cities began to tell and the people began to realize that it had its place in the work of the world. As a result ridicule and scoffing ceased and today the Salvation Army and the work it is doing are respected and encouraged by the churches and the people everywhere.

The part this body is taking in the awful war in Europe is very greatly to its credit and stamps it as an organization worthy of the respect and admiration of the civilized world.

The death of ex-Vice President Charles W. Fairbanks of Indiana removes a man who occupied large places in the public life of his state and the nation without achieving the personal popularity that comes to many of lesser calibre. But he was recognized as a man of ability and character and will be remembered as one who acted well his part in positions of large responsibility.

The farmers are learning that prosperity is not without its trials. It has come to the notice of the Internal Revenue Department that swindlers are abroad in the land "working" the farmers under the pretext that they are agents of the government, and due warning has been sounded.

And now Portsmouth is to have a co-operative store, which is not a bad thing when all hands pull together. But if there are any who think a co-operative store will solve the problem of the high cost of living without effort on their part they will find that they have something to learn.

Postmaster General Burleson is trying to increase the sending of farm products by parcel post, which, however, has a formidable competitor in the telephone, free delivery and credit system.

A new school house is needed at Freeman's Point. The necessity of providing schools is one of the penalties of growth but it is a penalty that any community ought to be willing and happy to pay.

It looks as if many of the Camp Devens boys would be going across before long. They will find work to do when they get there, and they will be ready to do it.

It will be strange if some of the U-boats operating along the Atlantic coast do not have to be reported one of these days as "missing in action."

MAY ESTABLISH U-BOAT BASE ON SCHELDT

Amsterdam, June 11.—(Dispatch to the London Daily Express)—I understand from a trustworthy source that one of the highest German officials connected with the administration of Belgium, speaking to a number of neutral diplomats last week at Brussels, remarked:

"We must admit that Zebrugge and Ostend will temporarily be of little use to the submarine war, Zebrugge, in fact, is of no use at all, and Ostend is very little."

"But there must be no mistake about this. The day that Ostend and Zebrugge are completely and definitely blocked, we shall cost what it may make use of the Scheldt as a submarine base. We know that the Scheldt question involves Dutch neutrality, but this would not make us shrink from our decision."

"Should we, therefore, be deprived of Ostend and Zebrugge as submarine bases, we could not help approaching Holland with a view to a friendly settlement of the Scheldt question. What Holland's answer will be we do not know, but even if it is a refusal, we shall have to consider her opposition as negligible and take the consequences."

NAVY YARD NOTES

The "Ditty Box."

Under the supervision of Naval Constructor E. C. Hamner, industrial manager of the New Orleans yard, a monthly journal similar to the Life Buoy has been issued at that station. Constructor Hamner was formerly ship superintendent at the local yard and his friends among the navy and civilian forces here are sure that the "Ditty Box" will have lots of pep and plenty of good reading matter of interest to the men at the station. However, the southern editor and yard correspondent will have to keep busy to beat out the Life Buoy.

Planty Waiting for Call.

The list of female operators at the labor employment office has increased to 231.

At present there are 250 women employed at the station under female operator's registration.

Difficulty Settled.

The misunderstanding among railroad conductors regarding 50-cent tickets which caused such confusion Monday on the workmen's train, has been adjusted by an order from the Boston & Maine passenger department directing the ticket collectors to honor the previously purchased tickets until they have expired.

May Go to Pattern Shop.

Rumor has it that the next call for female operators may place some of the women in the pattern shop.

Looks Like a Full House.

2715 men are at present confined to the naval prison and the prison ship Southey.

Painters Called.

Ten painters have been required in the Industrial Department.

Come Out and Play.

That basketball fans who have heard much about the team of the submarine drafting force hope to see those ball tossers in uniform and on the diamond before the submarines are launched by the record that the team is reported to have.

TOOK WRONG AUTO, ARRESTED

Exeter Academy Students Fined $15 and Costs Each for Their Joy Ride.

Joseph Kelley, of Dutton, Mich., and Herbert Gurdek, of Yonkers, N. Y., both students at Phillips Exeter Academy, were fined $15 and costs each in municipal court at Exeter Monday for taking the automobile of Arthur J. Cogan while it was standing in front of the residence of Dr. W. B. Keniston, on Front street, Exeter, Saturday evening.

The couple drove to Hampton Beach and then to this city where they were taken into custody by the local police who on Sunday turned them over to the Exeter officers.

In court, the boys claimed that they thought the automobile belonged to a friend whom they knew didn't care if they took it.

POLICE COURT

James J. Slavin and Daniel Brown both strangers in this city pleaded guilty to the charge of drunkenness in the municipal court today. They paid $11.65 each.

EPPLING MAN HELD FOR U. S. COURT

Oliver Carpeletto of Eppling was held in $200 bail for the Federal Grand Jury by United States Commissioner Hodgman at Concord Monday, charged with bringing whiskey from Haverhill, Mass., to Eppling. He furnished bail.

THIS COUNTRY SHOULD BE SELF SUPPORTING

The Object of the Rockingham County Farmers' Association is to Bring the Producers and Consumers Closer Together in Order to Get Better Results

Let the business man and farmer join hands in making Rockingham County self-supporting and thereby reducing the cost of living.

Our Government is asking every farmer to produce and all citizens to conserve food.

The citizens of Rockingham County will shortly beg the farmers to produce that they may eat. Why? Because eighty-five per cent of the perishable vegetables consumed in New England are imported from Florida and other southern states, California, Middle Western and Middle Eastern states.

Seventy-five per cent of all foods consumed in Rockingham County are brought in from outside of New Hampshire; the list includes beef, all kinds of cereals, vegetables including potatoes, fruit, eggs, poultry, and other necessary foods which mean our very existence and now freight rates and the necessity of using freight cars and ships to feed our soldiers and allies create a demand that we feed ourselves.

To illustrate: Manchester imported from outside the state 194 carloads of potatoes from Sept. 1st to April 1st of the present year. (The minimum car contains 700 bushels which means that 217,250 lbs. Manchester which could have been kept in the city and in Rockingham and Hillsboro Counties.) 112 cars of perishable vegetables from December 1st to May 1st. (Hillsboro County and Rockingham County themselves have as good fruit as any in the world outside of oranges, or other tropical fruits.)

533,170 dozen of eggs at a cost of $213,268. Manchester paid and Manchester sent over $1,000,000 in six months to other parts of the United States for food which could have been supplied by Hillsborough and Rockingham Counties. What about Portsmouth?

LISTEN! If we buy food in the West, we have the food and the West our money; if we buy food at home, Rockingham County has both the food and the money; when you buy some produce food in Portsmouth, Exeter, and other of our towns, these communities have the food and also the money in circulation; this money becomes a part of the life blood of our community, increasing values of property both in town and the farm lands. This circulation makes possible more improvements, better roads, bigger business, less cost of living, and a general increased prosperity for Rockingham County.

BUSINESS MEN AND CONSUMERS, ponder a moment and consider the amount of money which is leaving the above named cities and towns and what it means to you and your banks and business.

Take another moment and explain to yourself why the cost of living in Rockingham County is 40 per cent higher than in the Middle West. Is it not because we are non-producers? Take one more moment and ask yourself what the new advance in freight rates to this already high cost of living means to you and whether the pocketbook of the manufacturers and business men can continue to balance wages in order that the salaried man may live, or apply the remedy and make Rockingham County self-supporting and thereby bringing prosperity to all.

FARMERS—The business men are all specialists, why expect the farmer to put in ten to fourteen hours a day on his farm, to be expert buyer and salesman as well as a producer; if it can't be done in business, it certainly can't in agriculture.

The Government through the Farm Bureau has offered the solution and in Rockingham County the farmers to the amount of $25 are attempting to apply the following principles to solve the problem that the war has created:

First, to bring the farmers in touch with the latest practices of farming through actual demonstration.

Second—To apply modern business methods to the buying of raw materials and the selling of the finished product.

Third—To apply modern methods of finance as practiced by the business man.

Fourth—To solve transportation problems so that the farm product can be marketed in the cities and towns of the county daily.

To accomplish the above, we have a County Agent who has been a success before coming to Rockingham County, and is making good here. An Assistant County Agent, who came here from the Bureau of Markets in Washington, an expert on fruit and the marketing of vegetables, and farm products. A Bank Agent to assist the farmers in financing their crops in the ground and out. An editor of a paper to keep the farmers informed of the market prices of all commodities that the farmer should at all times be in touch with. An office force organized to carry on the business of the farmers' organization according to most approved business methods.

The Rockingham County Farmers' Association was organized under a charter and since February, 1917, it has actually accomplished the following:

First—Carried on demonstrations.

Second—Organized cooperative buying so that the farmers have been saved thousands of dollars and the money that would have gone out of the county has been kept at home.

With the present facilities this year almost sums can be saved because we are ready to start buying in season to obtain advantage of the seasonable low prices.

Third—The establishing of a financial system with a Bank Agent which has the backing of two banks in the county and three outside, so that the farmer can obtain a short loan exactly on the same principle as the business man makes his own.

The establishment of a farm loan bank so that the farmer can obtain long time mortgage on his farm as arranged by the Government.

Fourth—The actual establishing and publishing of a weekly paper which has already proved its value without in any way interfering or taking the place of any of the daily or weekly papers in the county. The establishment of offices in Exeter, the County Seat, whereby the farmer can call any time from eight o'clock in the morning to six o'clock at night and receive information in person or by telephone; where all manner of bulletins and information are kept for the benefit of the farmer and business man.

What we hope to accomplish this coming year:

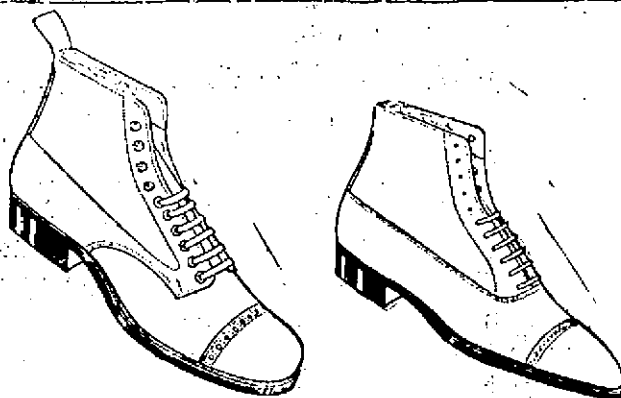

Make Rockingham County self-supporting by asking the merchants to appoint a committee to meet with the Farmers' Association and plan the food production for 1918.

The merchants of Portsmouth and other cities and towns know exactly the amount of food that they sell through their stores; these facts being made known to the directors, the executive committee and County Agent, arrangements can be made through the Farm Bureau with the farmers to supply all this produce that is raised in Rockingham County and through truck collection and delivery the produce brought to the door of the merchants on the day and at the time desired.

ORGANIZATION—The Farmers' Non-Producing League of the Middle West charge $16.00 for membership and have over 200,000 members; in fact practically all memberships in the West and South are $10.00 and without these co-operative organizations the 75 per cent of perishable fruit and vegetables could not be put in to our markets at a profit and to the detriment of our county farmers. Why should not the business men as well as the farmer support the Rockingham County Farmers' Association, so that all can be benefited in Rockingham County and meet the consumption of the West.

The time has arrived owing to the present and vital crisis that this country is in, that we should prepare for next season, as there are a number of great crops that must be planted this fall. We feel that the Rockingham County Farmers' Association has made it the duty of every citizen, every farmer, and business man in the county to become a member at once in order that the organization can be kept at its high standard of efficiency and that there should be no slackers sitting back waiting to allow the 800 odd members to do all the work and accomplish the results while all receive the benefits.

You are asked to do your part. Let us judge of whether you desire to make the county self-supporting and the cost of living less, as well as to increase your own income and produce.

Campbell refused to pay, according to the conductor, who had him arrested by the Nashua police on a charge of evading fare. He gave cash bail.

SHOULD CONSTRUCT INLAND WATERWAY.

Hon. Sherman B. Burroughs believes in improving the inland waterways. In a letter to O. L. Frisbee of this city, dated June 7, at Washington, he says, "I thank you very much for your thought of me in connection with the program of the Atlantic Deepwaterway Convention. I should consider it a great honor to be on the program and whatever you can arrange for in that regard will be much appreciated. All New Hampshire ought to be interested in this great work of improving the inland waterways. New Hampshire has much to gain from the establishment of an inland waterway from Maine to Florida through this state."

SAYS WOMEN IN AMERICA ARE LOAFERS

Chicago, June 11.—Germany, hitherto its efforts to conquer the mainland of France, is attempting to subjugate the women of the Republic through motherhood, while the women of the United States, unheeding the call of their French sisters, are "loafers," going about in high-heeled shoes, waiting to be entertained by the story of the war," Dr. Edinger Lovejoy declared in an address here today. Dr. Lovejoy, former health commissioner of Portland, Or., was speaking before the Medical Women's National Association, meeting here simultaneously with the American Medical Association.

Speaking of the "loafers of France" Dr. Lovejoy, who recently returned from a six months sojourn in the war zone, declared that 350,000 girls over 15, and boys over 14, had been detained by the Germans in the captured French provinces.

"Three rules govern the Germans in the retention of the French civil populations," the speaker said. "Those retained must be of value for fighting labor or breeding."

"It is up to the women of America to stop this Hun invasion. We will have no loafers among men or women either."

"If the women of Germany had laid down their arms and ceased doing the work of men the war would have been over long since."

"If the women of America would wear winter clothing in winter and not sit about in clothing fit only for hot dog-days while they burn tons of coal to keep them warm—wasting coal to preserve the dainties of fashion—heatless Mondays would be unnecessary."

"The big thing in the United States is for the women to replace the men in civil occupations in order that our full man power may be sent to the aid of the Allies. There is a crying need in the South, for instance, for harvest hands. This is a splendid opportunity for women golfers and tennis players."

"We have only to be as good as our grandmothers, who made this great land for us to last in."

DANIELS REASSURES LONDON

London, June 11.—American naval forces in European waters are not being weakened in consequence of the operations of German submarines off the American coast, and the ocean highway for the movement of troops to Europe will be kept open, Secretary Daniels says in a cablegram published yesterday by the Times. The message follows:

"The activities of German submarines off the American coast have not in any way changed the policy of this Government. The road to France will be kept open for the transportation of our troops and the delivery of munitions and food supplies for our forces and those of our allies. There is being no weakening of our naval forces in European waters as a result of the new activity necessitated on our own coast. The country has remained calm in the face of Germany's attempt to bring frightfulness to our doors. In fact, this enemy effort has stimulated recruiting and strengthened the determination of our people to use every resource to defeat the enemy."

Casualties among the Allies in the present war average about 5 per cent. Among Y. M. C. A. workers at the front the casualties average 9 per cent.

ITALIANS HAVE SEA TANK

London, June 11.—According to Vienna newspapers received here, says the Central News correspondent at Amsterdam "the Italians used a sea tank during their last attack on Pola, Austria's naval base on the Adriatic. The boat was 40 feet long, six feet wide and propelled by electricity.

"There is an endless rotary chain around the vessel, fitted with barbs which cut nets and other obstacles, like the land tanks. The vessel has two torpedo tubes."

FINANCE COMMITTEE MEETING

A meeting of the Finance Committee of the City Council was held on Monday evening, to consider the reconsideration of the Appropriation bill made necessary by the great many demands being made on the city as the center of war industries.

ATLANTIC NINE DEFEATS P. A. C.

The Atlantic defeated the P. A. C. in the first extra inning game of the Sunday schedule so far, this season on Monday evening. It was a fast game with both pitchers allowing but few and scattered hits. Irving, allowing the heavy hitting "champs" only two hits, and Jordan five. The latter however was in several tight places but each time managed to lighten the bat.

The Atlantic presented a much stronger team and with the promise by the next game that they will have an even stronger aggregation, Manager Newell is out with the best material and the entire working force at the plant is being combated for the best material.

Neither side scored until the last of the eighth when the errors by Brackett and Jordan with a sacrifice by Kenyon scored the lone run and the game.

Jordan had men on bases no less than four innings but early time prevented a score. In the first after two men had been retired, Synsey shot one through third base and stole second taking third on a passed ball. Robinson walked but Jordan fanned Irving. In the second he outplayed the same thing, Stevenson getting around to third and O'Donnell to second with two men gone Jordan fanned Pilgrim this time.

In the third with two men gone Robinson and Irving singled and Kenyon filled the base when Brackett fumbled his grounder, but Henderson was thrown out by Howard. In the fifth a single by Bruce and a sacrifice of Synsey which Thomas threw wild placed two men on with none out but Jordan forced the next three men to hit.

In the last of the eighth Robinson reached first on Brackett's fumble, Irving hit to Jordan who had a chance to double, but he threw wild to second. Kenyon sacrificed advancing both running and Reardon's grounder to Brackett got away from him and Robinson scored.

The P. A. C. got two hits one the result of a bad bound at third but they were of no value the nearest they came to scoring was in the second when Vaughan walked, stole second and went to third on a passed ball.

but the next three men were out in order.

EXPECT STEADY STREAM OF SUBMARINES

Washington, June 11.—Naval officials are steadily swinging around to the realization that the German U-boat descent on the American coast was not a flash in the pan, but may be followed by a steady continuation of submarine depredation at the very threshold of the United States and along that section of the coast which faces the ports of departure of American military transports.

Careful analysis of the reports obtained by naval district commanders from survivors of bombed vessels, as well as the plotting of the line and location of the points of attack last week, convinced naval officials that at least two enemy submarines were in action under Beilke's orders. That these are not part of a fleet of submarines which Germany may intend to use against the United States, has not been determined to the satisfaction of Secretary Daniels, Assistant Secretary Roosevelt, Admiral Benson and their mainstay, advisers in the plans that have been made for dealing with the menace.

It was admitted in naval circles today that there were various ways in which the apparent extended stay of German submarines along the American coast may be explained. Some of the suggested explanations are:
First—Germany may be sending U-boats here in relays. New submarines arriving about the time that their predecessors have reached the limit of their stay.
Second—Germany may have found some way of enlarging the radius of action of the submarines engaged in this particular service.

Third—These particular submarines may carry more oil fuel than American naval officials considered possible from the information they had obtained.
Fourth—Germany's submarines engaged in the American coast attacks may be accompanied by a mother ship.

Fifth—These submarines may obtain replenishment of fuel by taking it from some captured tankers.
Sixth—There may be a secret base of fuel supply somewhere on this side of the Atlantic, although this has not been proved in any investigated case.

Seventh—For the purpose of this campaign, Germany may be willing to sacrifice submarines for what the navy is worth to Germany, by sending several submarines here and instead of wasting their fuel on useless journeys home, leaving them here until they have used all their fuel and then sending them into harbor for refueling. While this is not considered likely, it was suggested as one way in which the effective radius of action for destructive purposes could be extended without the use of a base, a relay of submarines, or a mother ship.

The unofficial report from Norfolk that survivors of the liner did not arriving at that port asserted that the submarine that sank the liner was accompanied by a mother ship of 6000 tons, painted gray, with one funnel amidships, drew no confirmation from official sources tonight.

The navy department denied that it had confirmation of the report that there had been an encounter off the New Jersey coast this morning, between an American transport and a German submarine during which the transport had fired five shots at the submarine with unknown results.

Zurich dispatches, received today ascertained that German newspapers are devoting much space to the activities of German submarines along the Atlantic coast—filled with threats against this country, and arguing that the economic effects of this new phase of the boat campaign will be "fatal" to the United States. They pretend to believe that these submarines will suspend traffic between America and Europe.

In its Berlin correspondence the Stuttgarter News Tagblatt says:

TO PREVENT RUSH.

London, June 10.—In order to prevent the rush of workers to the Board of Trade Transways Committee suggested that industrial concerns should "stagger" their times of opening and closing. By taking on and discharging work people at intervals of ten minutes or so, the cars could be worked more economically and there would be a continuous stream of passengers instead of the present rush at certain hours of the day.

Count Rovenlow, who is always rapid in his reviews regarding the United States, is credited by the "Pittsburgh Times" with greeting "with joy" this new enterprise of the German submarines. The German submarines, he says, "have no special aim either in Europe or in America. For them, it is simply a question of destroying allied tonnage placed at their disposal."

BELIEVE U-BOAT OFF NEW ENGLAND COAST

(By Associated Press.)
Rockland, Me., June 10.—The Eastern Steamship Co. steamer City of Dunbar bound from Bangor to Boston was held up at this port tonight. The steamer was stopped at White Head by the Coast Guard and commanded to remain at this port.

Soon after a speedy submarine chaser arrived and gave the Captain order to remain at anchor until further orders. No explanation was offered from the Naval Station here, but in view of the precautions taken along the coast it is thought that a German submarine has been sighted in these waters.

Shortly after midnight the City of Dunbar was notified that she could proceed upon her voyage.

Boston, June 10.—Naval Intelligence officers were searching the coast of Cape Cod in an effort to learn the identity of a steamer that put into Lewis Harbor on Saturday near West Yarmouth and departed suddenly on Sunday. Reports that the ship was a mother ship for the German submarines were being investigated.

Boston, June 10.—All shipping out of this harbor were ordered to remain in the harbor until daylight. The only exception being the New York steamer which was allowed to sail.

Our welding is not "stitching" the parts together—it's fusing them into a complete whole. Moderate charges.

NAMES IRISHMAN LANDED BY U-BOAT

London, June 10.—The man who was landed on the coast of Ireland from a German submarine some time ago, and who is now a prisoner in the Tower of London, was Lance Corporal J. Dowling of the Connaught Rangers. It was announced in the House of Commons today by James J. MacPherson, parliamentary secretary to the War Office.

Mr. MacPherson said he believed the corporal had been a prisoner in Germany, and he had been remanded for trial by a court-martial, charged with "voluntarily aiding or serving the enemy."

A TRAVELING HOSPITAL

Washington, June 11.—Mobile hospitals, mounted on motor trucks and trailers, and equipped with nurses who will eat and sleep on the road, and every other facility necessary to bring the operating room to the wounded men, are being organized by the army medical department. Miss Doris E. Thompson, chief of the Army Nurse Corps, is organizing staffs of 50 nurses for each unit who will go up to within five miles of fighting lines when their caravan responds to the emergency calls it is designed to meet.

Each unit is planned to be equipped

Do You Throw Your Money Away?

If you do not, save it by bringing your old clothes to use to be renewed and repaired. We can many times give you an extra year's wear out of a suit you consider hopeless. Our cleaning department is as near perfection as scientific knowledge and modern equipment can make it. In our dyeing department we make a specialty of turning out all work at two days' notice.

New England Fuel Administrator URGES COAL FIRE BE ABANDONED

He says that a ton of coal turned into gas by the gas company has greater fuel value than a ton and a half burned in the kitchen range. We have always told you this. Now why do you keep on using coal when it is so scarce and you can get a better fuel by using gas?

four losses. The wife said that all that held her back from sending a bullet under the bed was the thought that bullets were scarce and she might need it against the Indians. The Swede escaped all injury.

There are some who are skulking under the bed now, holding to their checkbooks and purses, their bundles of securities and deeds. They are pessimistic to a man. They haven't earned the right to be optimistic yet. Come out, you skulking cowards! Come out and do your share of the fighting and see how your soul will lose its savoring hue and begin to fly the royal blue and the virile red, on a background of purest white, clean conscience. Then you, too, will be optimistic and determined.

100TH PERFORMANCE OF "HEARTS OF THE WORLD"

At Majestic Theatre, Boston.
The one hundredth performance of D. W. Griffith's stupendous production, "Hearts of the World," was celebrated at the Majestic Theatre, Boston, on Tuesday, June 11. Apparently there is no waning in interest and enthusiasm over this splendid work of Mr. Griffith's, first shown at the Majestic Theatre on April 16, and which, by reason of its fine photography, patriotic appeal and great historical value, has placed it in the front rank of achievements. What Mr. Griffith did in "The Birth of a Nation" and "Intolerance" he has surpassed in "Hearts of the World," for this latter production not only is gigantic as a physical accomplishment, but will live for generations to come as one of the greatest documents of the present world-war. Mr. Griffith also shows us many of the exact spots where the United States troops are now gathered, including Passchendaele Ridge, Chantilly, Vimy Ridge, the village of Ham and numerous other localities about which we read in the daily news despatches. He has shown, too, the British House of Parliament and the French Chamber of Deputies, in session, and such prominent international figures as Lloyd George, General Joffre, Premier Viviani, Lord Beaverbrook, Winston Churchill, Earl Grey and others.

"Hearts of the World" is distinctive in that the war is not made the foremost feature, but a simple, beautiful love story of unending tenderness runs through the entire production, the great struggle in France serving only as the background for this unfolding romance.

Performances are given at the Majestic Theatre every afternoon and evening, including Sunday evening.

GERMAN U-BOAT LEAGUE.
Amsterdam, June 10.—The German U-boat League, a national organization whose purpose is to popularize the submarine, just as the German Navy League engaged in propaganda work is to make popular the idea of a huge fleet of war vessels, is now devoting itself to raising relief funds for the crews of submarines and their dependents. In the last year it claims to have distributed $250,000.

There is no braggadochio, no talk of doing the job and handing. All know that it is a real job, a heavy one, but they just know they are going to lick Fritz, and I know it too. They are optimistic because they know that they will put every ounce they possess into the fight, holding back nothing. They propose to fight as though the fate of the battle depended entirely on the speed and thoroughness with which they whiffed their immediate opponents. Their optimism is founded on their resolution.

Are we earning the right to be optimistic here at home? Are we doing our bit with the feeling that "our bit" is not doing, (ill hence his come? Or are we doing our bit and leaving it a mere list.

When I was a small boy, in the big forest of Minnesota, the Sioux nation began a campaign like that of the Hun. They killed women and children and tortured every one they caught. A band attacked a farm one afternoon and wounded the farmer as he ran for the house. His wife seized a gun and threw the door open. As her man fell headlong across the threshold, she killed the nearest buck Indian and slammed the door against the rest.

There was a Swede, hired man working there. He crawled under a log and lay there, while the wounded man landed blows and the wife fought. The band moved on after three or four losses. The wife said that all that held her back from sending a bullet under the bed was the thought that bullets were scarce and she might need it against the Indians. The Swede escaped all injury.

There are some who are skulking under the bed now, holding to their checkbooks and purses, their bundles of securities and deeds. They are pessimistic to a man. They haven't earned the right to be optimistic yet. Come out, you skulking cowards! Come out and do your share of the fighting and see how your soul will lose its savoring hue and begin to fly the royal blue and the virile red, on a background of purest white, clean conscience. Then you, too, will be optimistic and determined.

CAULKERS NEEDED AT SHIP YARD

The L. H. Shattuck Co. who are making a great effort to launch one or more ships on July 4th from the Newington Ship yard, are greatly in need of wood caulkers and they will take fifty if they can be secured. Men of advanced years who were caulkers by trade and who can direct crews of men will be given employment and all those who know the trade are greatly needed.

There is a good salary connected with this work and plenty of chance for, over time, in fact as much as a man wants so that the opportunity for a big week's pay are very great. There are some men in this section who learned the trade and who are engaged in other trades, and it would be a patriotic duty for them to get back to their old trade and assist in this great need. Great strides are being made in the ships and there is some danger that the lack of caulkers may hold up the work so that anybody who knows of men of this trade who can be reached will be doing a patriotic act to get word to them.

RETIRE AFTER THIRTY YEARS IN THE SERVICE

Special Ceremony in Honor of Serg.-Major Wm. Scully at the Navy Yard.

Sergeant Major William Scully, one of the best known men of his rank in the United States Marine Corps, retired on Monday after 30 years in this branch of Uncle Sam's service. A special ceremony was held at 5 p. m. on the Navy Yard drill grounds when the entire Marine guard gave a dress parade in his honor. During the ceremony he was presented with a costly gold watch and chain by the commanding officer, Major L. S. Willis, on behalf of the officers and men of the guard. He also received many personal gifts from the men and the ladies and officers of the navy yard. His first military service was with the army. He enlisted at Philadelphia Feb. 4, 1888, and was assigned to Fort Slocum. On the completion of this enlistment he joined the Marine Corps July 16, 1891.

He has visited every important port in the world and had a personal acquaintance with the former King of Portugal, King Josef of Austria, German princes and nobility of European countries. He served under many noted officers of the navy and was a member of the famous old Kearsarge, flagship of Admiral Watson, when wrecked off the West Indies, Feb. 2, 1894.

The following personal letter in connection with his retirement from the Major General Commandant of the United States Marine Corps was received during the exercises:

"Headquarters U. S. Marine Corps, Commandant's Office.
Washington, June 5, 1918.

"My Dear Sergeant Scully:
The official records at these headquarters show that, on the 18th ultimo, you had to your credit thirty years and thirteen days' service in the United States Army and Marine Corps.

Accordingly, on the 20th ultimo, pursuant to your request of May 6, 1918, orders were issued transferring you, on the 10th instant, to the retired list; and, I wish to avail myself of the opportunity of assuring you, in a personal way, of the high estimate placed by me upon the value of the service you have rendered in the Marine Corps.

Your record shows that, from time to time, at different stations, during your incumbency of the several enlisted grades which you have held, you have been entrusted with varied and important duties making demand upon some of the best qualities of the soldier, and that these duties have been accomplished to the entire satisfaction of your superior officers. I am certain that all officers under whom you have served, as well as your comrades in the service, share with me the sentiment that your retirement will be felt as a distinct loss to the active list of the Corps.

"Again assuring you of my deep appreciation of the long service that has rewarded not only to the credit of yourself, but to that of the organization to which you belong and wishing you all possible happiness in the retirement that you have so creditably earned, I am,

"Very sincerely yours,
"GEORGE BARNETT,
"Major-General Commandant."

He is now awaiting orders from Washington which retain him in the service during the remainder of the war. He is a native of Brooklyn.

LOCAL ITALIAN IS CHARGED WITH ASSAULT

Defense Claims Stampano Fired Shot at Fennell in Self Defense.

Vicenzo Stampano, 45 years of age, of this city, was placed on trial Monday in superior court at Exeter, charged with assault on John Fennell, a fellow country man on Russell street on the night of Feb. 23.

It is alleged that Stampano called at the home of John Fennell, a Polish resident where Fennell was making a call, and asked him to come out. It was presumably to settle a long standing trouble between the two, and Stampano, it is alleged, drew a revolver, and fired five shots. One taking effect on Fennell's elbow, one in his breast, another through his hat, and the fourth through a window of a house on Russell street. The fifth one is unaccounted for.

The reports were heard by Officer James Doherty who was on his beat on Deer street. He gave chase down Wall street, to an alley-way to an embankment near the river. Stampano was caught at the foot of Green street near Market street. During the chase Stampano threw away the revolver, which could not be located at the time. It was afterwards found by a boy who threw it into the water.

The case was stated to the jury by County Solicitor William H. Sleeper of Exeter, who claimed that Stampano was carrying a dangerous weapon and the shot was not fired in self defense, but his intent was to kill. The defense is that the shot was fired in self defense.

Stampano is represented by William R. Pierce of Dover and Ralph G. Gray of Portsmouth, the state by County Solicitor William H. Sleeper of Exeter, John A. Horton of Derry, is foreman of the jury.

"THE STARS AND STRIPES" PUBLISHED

Copy of Official Paper of the American Expeditionary Forces Received Here.

The Herald is in receipt of a copy of "The Stars and Stripes," the official newspaper of the American Expeditionary Forces. This enterprising journal is an 8-page affair, published weekly by officers and soldiers serving in France.

"The Stars and Stripes" is a most interesting paper and rivals many metropolitan journals. Nearly every department of an up-to-date paper is contained therein. Besides the news and editorials, there are extremely fine cartoons. One in a recent issue shows a picture of an American soldier and sailor looking toward a statue of Liberty. It bears the caption, "The Girl We're All Fighting For."

There is a sport page containing everything of interest to fandom both over here and over there. There is a column of beauty hints, and another with advice to the lovelorn soldier boys.

A recent issue mentions a baseball game at Swansea, England, between the London A. E. F. nine and the Tappan Canadians, which was won by the latter 10 to 3. Ident. Mims, Q. M. C., the captain and second baseman of the American team. In a statement said: "The next time we'll be fit and ready. This game was only a curtain raiser for our season." It will be remembered that Lieut. Mims was formerly stationed at the local navy yard a few years ago and while here was a member of the Marine's baseball team.

DID YOU KNOW THAT:

The big dance of the season is scheduled for Thursday evening at Freeman's Hall, under the management of the G. A. Y. Club. Marden's orchestra will furnish the music, assisted by Bert Robbins, the boy baritone of New York City. Spotlight dancing and other big summer attractions are to be part of the program. The management has been assured of a large out-of-town crowd and with the music and other special features, the dancers will be sure to have the best time of the season. Concert 8-8:30. Dancing till 12. Gents 55c. Ladies 30c. Baitery 15c. $5 War Savings Certificate for the Lucky Ticket.
